

Daniel F. Farhat

Department of Economics
University of Otago
PO Box 56
Dunedin, New Zealand

+64 3 479 8645 (Tel)
+64 3 479 8174 (Fax)
dan.farhat@otago.ac.nz

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Economics – University of California, Riverside, 2009.

M.S., Economics – University of Oregon, Eugene, 2002.

B.A., Economics and Anthropological Archaeology – University of California, San Diego, 2001.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2009 – Present           Lecturer, University of Otago.

2005 – 2009           Adjunct Lecturer/Teaching Assistant, University of California, Riverside.

2005 – 2006           Lecturer, Riverside Community College, Norco.

2003 – 2004           Lecturer, Humboldt State University.

SERVICE

2009 – Present           Editor – EcoNZ Magazine, University of Otago.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

International Business Cycles, New Trade Theory and Open Economy Macroeconomics, Animal Spirits and Open Economy Macroeconomics, International Finance.

DISSERTATION

Title: “On the Transmission Mechanism of International Business Cycles”.

Dissertation Committee: Prof. Jang-Ting Guo (Chair), Prof. Roger Farmer (UCLA), Prof. R. Robert Russell, Prof. Richard Suen, and Prof. Victoria Umanskaya.

COMPLETED RESEARCH PAPERS

“Endogenous Labor Supply, International Trade and Macroeconomic Dynamics”, October 2008.

WORK IN PROGRESS

“Capital Accumulation, International Trade and Macroeconomic Dynamics with Heterogeneous Producers”.

“The Structure of Traded Goods and International Business Cycles”.

CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS

“International Trade and Macroeconomic Dynamics”

University of California, Riverside Economic Theory Seminar Series, October 2008.

“Endogenous Labor Supply, International Trade and Macroeconomic Dynamics”

Southern Workshop in Macroeconomics, July 2009.

University of California, Riverside Conference: Business Cycles: Theoretical and Empirical Advances, April 2009.

California State University, Long Beach Department of Economics, February 2009.

The University of Otago Department of Economics, February 2009.

Pacific Lutheran University Department of Economics, February 2009.

COMPUTER SKILLS

Matlab, Gauss, EViews, STATA, Scientific Workplace, LaTeX.